

From the Editorial Assistant

I am pleased to present the Pacific Surveillance and Response Issue and I must say this issue has been a great learning experience for me. I would like to especially thank Christelle and her team at the Secretariat of the Pacific Community in Noumea, New Caledonia for the tremendous help and support in making this issue possible. I even had the opportunity to work with Christelle when she spent a week in Fiji mainly for this PHD issue and it's been a pleasure working with her.

So here we are September 2005 Volume 12 No. 2 and I would like to thank all those that have contributed to this issue especially the authors for contributing papers and also the following reviewers for their never ending support and labour of love:

- Tony Stewart - Australia
- Mahomed Patel - Australia
- Jean-Paul Chaine - Federated States of Micronesia
- George Slama - Fiji
